

Utility Sales Executive required to cover Central Scotland.

Attractive Basic salary + uncapped commission + car + benefits.

Revo Utilities is a Glasgow based commercial energy broker looking for a new member to joining the fast expanding team. The ability to generate new business is key. This should be evident throughout your past positions.

You must have:

- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Computer literacy
- At least 3 years in B2B sales of merchant services, telecoms or utilities, demonstrating exceptional targets consistently
- Full valid UK driving license is required
- Must have access to a car
- Ambition with plenty of drive and self-motivation
- Persuasive personality with plenty of confidence
- Not fazed by rejection
- Ability/experience to network with key business people in your area
- Ability to work effectively in a targeted environment

This is an unrivalled sales opportunity to get your foot in the door selling on behalf of one of the UK`s upcoming utilities companies. If you are motivated enough to deliver the targets required there is potential for progression within the company.

You will also be provided with an excellent benefits package including:

- Attractive basic salary.
- Excellent commission structure, which is driven by your dedication and commitment.
- Career progression within an expanding dynamic company
- Company car
- Mileage allowance
- Laptop,
- Mobile phone.

If you feel you have the motivation and determination to drive this forward then send your C.V to info@revo-utilities.com